

The FCC should not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy law protections.

Indiana's Telephone Privacy law has improved my time at home.

I used to pay 5$ per month for a phone call screening service. Indiana's law has allowed me to save this money and maintain my private hours private. Any infringement or watering down of this legislation does nothing less than watering down personal freedom and the right to live life without interruption.